Overview

Are you passionate about helping young people? The Certificate IV in Youth Work is your perfect opportunity to make a real impact! This course will equip you with the essential tools and knowledge to work in programs and services that cater to the unique social, behavioural, health, welfare, developmental and protection needs of youth.

You will be qualified to make positive change while working in community, government or welfare agencies dedicated to building a brighter future for young people.

Why wait? Start today and change lives, starting with your own!

Fee Free Eligibility

The WA State Government, through Jobs and Skills WA, subsidises vocational education and training (VET) courses in priority areas, to reduce or remove the fees to make training more accessible to all Western Australians.

To access this funding, a person must meet all of the following:

- Be unemployed or under-employed
- Have a valid Unique Student Identifier (USI)
- Primarily reside in Western Australia
- Be an Australian citizen or permanent resident of Australia or hold an approved visa subclass

Note: Please see our website for all specific eligibility requirements.
