AVOID SOAKING THE BRACELETS IN WATER

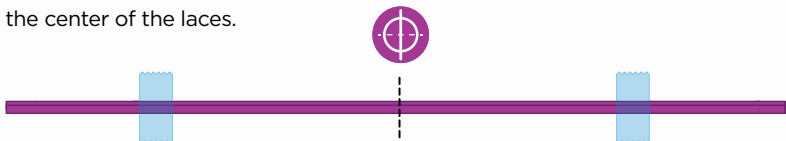

- 1 Measure and cut two 50 cm (19 $\frac{3}{4}$ in) long pieces of purple suede lace.

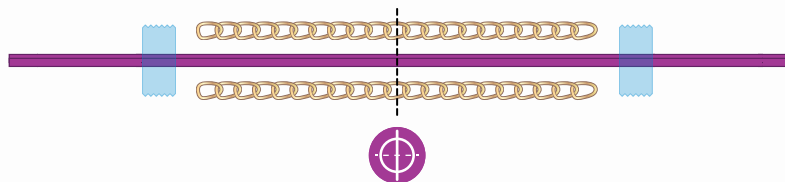

- 2 Place the laces side by side on the working surface. Secure them with a piece of adhesive tape approximately 15 cm (6 in) from each end.

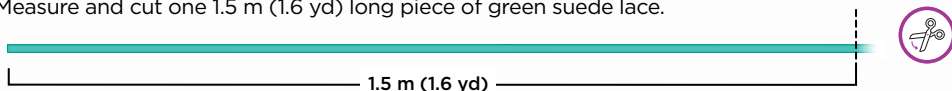

- 3 Find the center of the laces.

- 4 Take two curb chains and position them on both sides of the laces. Make sure the chains and the laces are all centered together.

- 5 Measure and cut one 1.5 m (1.6 yd) long piece of green suede lace.

- 6 Pass the green lace through the first links of the chains underneath the purple laces.

- 7 Center the green lace behind the purple laces.

- 8 Pass the green lace's end over the purple laces, through the following links of the chains and underneath the purple laces.

- 9 Tighten the loop and try to keep the same tension all along the chains.

- 10 Repeat step 8 through each link of the chains.

- 11 Pass the other end of the green lace over the purple laces through the following links of the chains and underneath the purple laces.

- 12 Repeat step 11 through each link of the chains.

- 13 Take the two ends of the green lace and tie them in a double knot.

- 14 Cover the knot with craft glue. Allow 5 minutes to dry and cut the excess lengths of lace after the knot.

- 15 Take the adhesive tape off both sides of the purple laces.

- 16 Thread the two ends of the purple lace through a big gold bead.

- 17 Make a simple knot at the ends of the laces to prevent the bead from falling.

18 Pass the two other ends of purple lace through the bead in the opposite direction.

19 Make a simple knot at the ends of the laces.

20 Attach one charm to the bracelet.

21 Repeat the steps 1 through 20 to make the second chain bracelet.

- 1 Measure and cut one 60 cm (23 $\frac{3}{4}$ in) long piece of pink suede lace and one 60 cm (23 $\frac{3}{4}$ in) long piece of black suede lace.

- 2 Thread both pieces of lace through the first link of the chain in opposite directions.

- 3 Weave the laces following the illustration.

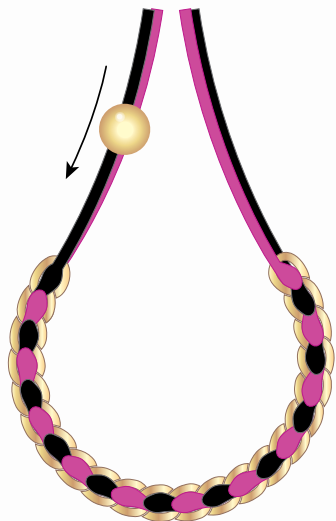

TIP

Thread one lace at a time to make this step easier.

- 4 Measure 12.5 cm (5 in) from the end of the chain and cut off the excess lengths of lace.

- 5 Thread the two ends of lace on one side of the bracelet through a big gold bead.
- 6 Make a simple knot at the end of each lace to prevent the bead from falling.

- 7 Pass the two other ends of lace through the bead in the opposite direction.

- 8 Make a simple knot at the ends of the laces.

- 9 Attach one charm to the bracelet.

- 10 Repeat the steps 1 through 9 to make the second chain bracelet.
