- Approval of Minutes
  - Approved by members
- Agenda Items
  - Team Member Updates
    - The Broadway show trip is scheduled for March 18 instead of March 11.
    - Half Day
      - March 5: First half day
        - Aligns with elementary school to create convenience for students who need to care for younger siblings
      - March 12: PTC (also half day dismissal)
      - Instruction is happening on half days, please continue to send children to school
    - Chronic Absenteeism is pretty high at the moment
      - Any student who has more than 10 days absence (in the full school year) is considered Chronic Absenteeism.
      - It shows on the report cards and it affects high school applications.
      - Hopefully parent leaders can encourage other parents to be sending children to school
    - Lateness
      - Late is better than absent
      - That being said, showing up at 11am is still only half of the instructional day. Please try your best to make appointments after the school day (after 2:20pm).
    - Lunar New Year celebration is Friday, Feb. 13 (2:20-4:00pm)

- o CEP Progress Monitoring and Continuous Improvement Planning(PRT for Period 2)
  - Mid-year screener was completed. Some showed progress while some remained stagnant and some even regressed.
  - Many regressed students had a low attendance rate.
  - Students will be sent home with progress reports.
  - Teachers are being trained in DOE approved intervention programs to increase the likelihood of the effectiveness of program implementation.
- o Title I Parent Advisory Council (PAC) Updates
  - Upcoming workshops:
    - Schoolwide assessment tips (by Ms. Johnson). How can families help children prepare for the statewide assessments?
    - Ms. Katelyn is planning a workshop on assisting families dealing with chronic absenteeism.
- o Activities
- o List concerns and next steps
  - No questions or suggestions from SLT members.
  - Next meeting is in March.
- Adjournment
  - o Record who motions to adjourn and agreed time of ending: 4:30 PM
