FEATURE

- Accompanied by an English-speaking staff member, this walking tour of Yoichi and Otaru is conducted in a small group using local trains and route buses for transport. Embark on a special tour that allows customers to experience the local culture and daily life on a deeper level.
- First you will visit at the Yoichi distillery where you can experience the world of authentic whisky. On site are 4 exhibits introducing whisky making and the life of founder Masataka Taketsuru and you can also enjoy various Nikka whiskies including products exclusive to the distillery at the tasting bar (charges apply).
- Then at the Tanaka Sake Brewery, you can see the manufacturing site and savor free tasting of about 10 kinds of Japanese sake and liqueur inside Kikkogura.
- After indulging in free time on Otaru Sakaimachi Street, conclude your journey with a scenic 40-minute canal cruise. Discover Otaru's unique waterside charm that can only be appreciated from the canal.
