FEATURE

- This 1-day tour visits Dazaifu, home to Tenjin shrines deeply rooted in Japanese culture, and Yanagawa, which preserves its Edo period atmosphere.
- Dazaifu Tenmangu, dedicated to the god of learning Sugawara no Michizane, is the head shrine of over 12,000 Tenmangu shrines nationwide and combines nature with traditional Japanese culture.
- Enjoy a "donko" boat cruise through Yanagawa's historic Edo-period canals with an experienced boatman, featuring a private charter with Japanese-style teatime.
- Yanagawa Ohana preserves an Edo-period feudal lord's residence where visitors can experience samurai culture. The tour also includes Tachibana Museum, which houses valuable artifacts including a national treasure sword.
