Celebrating One Year in Our New Home: MKHC's Journey of Growth and Transformation

Can you believe it's already been a year since the Mansfield Kaseman Health Clinic moved? On April 18, 2024, we hosted the official ribbon-cutting ceremony and welcomed patients to our new space in the Key West Corporate Center in the Fallsgrove area of Rockville.

In Memoriam: Nancy Aldous

We've published a retrospective to reflect on everything we have achieved in just one year - read the full article via the link!

Program Spotlight: LOP's English Literacy Classes

Ann "Nancy" Aldous, a long-term and dedicated Reach volunteer, passed away at the age of 88 on April 12. She was an important part of the Reach volunteer staff until the pandemic changed the way volunteers could interact with Reach. However, Nancy was more than just a wonderful Reach volunteer. She helped make significant changes to the way things were done in Montgomery County.

Become a Changemaker!

Want to help Reach make a difference in the lives of more community members? Looking for a way to make a long-term impact?

Inspired by students' motivation to master the fundamentals of reading and writing in English, LOP launched an English literacy class this year that focuses on reading comprehension, writing, phonics, and pronunciation. So far, fifteen students have taken part in the class.
