

Welcome to Restaurant Heemelrijck.

The family recipes you will find here have been developed since 1949 by Grandfather Nars. That same year, Nars opened Narco's Sandwich Shop on the Damrak, in honour of his departed best friend Cor. Before the war, these two friends were acrobatic dancers and owned a taxi company, despite not having driving licenses. Over the years, the sandwich shop grew into a restaurant and later into a Franco-Dutch bistro. All of this has led to the third generation continuing these traditions and recipes in the heart of Amsterdam: on the Singel, at the iconic Leidseplein and in the vibrant De Pijp district.
