Biography

Mtungwa is an associate in the firm's corporate & commercial department. He has experience in general corporate and commercial law matters across a variety of sectors. His expertise includes drafting commercial agreements such as sale of business agreements, sale of shares agreements, shareholders' agreements and memorandum of incorporation documents. He also has experience in the drafting of trust deeds and wills.

Mtungwa holds a BCom degree and LLB degree from the University of the Witwatersrand. During the completion of his LLB degree he was on the Dean's List and received an academic award from the Wits School of Law, in his final year of study, for being the best performing student in the course Real and Personal Security.

Mtungwa joined Fluxmans as a candidate attorney in 2023 and was appointed an associate in 2025.
