Biography

Nafeesa is an associate in the firm's Litigation Department, specialising in commercial litigation and dispute resolution. Her practice focuses on shareholder and contractual disputes, as well as the judicial review of exchange control decisions, including matters involving the South African Reserve Bank's refusal, blocking, or forfeiture of funds.

She has substantial experience in drafting High Court pleadings and interlocutory applications in complex commercial matters and is regularly involved in the formulation of litigation strategy. She has appeared in the Magistrates' Court and works across both court and arbitral forums.

She is actively developing her arbitration practice and is a member of Young ICCA, a leading global arbitration network operating under the auspices of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration.

She obtained her LLB from the University of Johannesburg in 2019, joined Fluxmans as a Candidate Attorney in 2021 and was appointed as an Associate in 2023. She also completed the Short Learning Programme in Business Rescue at the University of Johannesburg, with distinction
