Biography

Michael Geel is a candidate attorney at Fluxmans, currently preparing for admission as an attorney of the High Court of South Africa, with his admission papers to be submitted early this year.

He holds BCom and LLB degrees from the University of Cape Town and has gained experience across a broad spectrum of commercial matters. Michael has worked with a diverse client base, with particular focus on business rescue and insolvency, while also being involved in complex commercial transactions and high-value litigious disputes.

Michael has played a role in several notable matters, including the liquidation of Ellies Holdings Limited, and assisting in the 2024 Business Rescue of the Year involving WestPack Lifestyle (Pty) Ltd and its sister companies. He has also contributed to a number of high-profile litigious matters.

Known for his strategic thinking and client-centric approach, Michael is committed to delivering practical, commercially astute solutions tailored to his clients' objectives.
