Biography

Vincent advises directors, shareholders, creditors, insolvency practitioners and businesses on corporate restructuring, insolvency and dispute resolution matters. His practice centres on business rescue proceedings, liquidations, shareholder disputes and insolvency-related litigation, with particular emphasis on directors' duties, distressed business transactions and corporate governance in high-pressure environments.

He regularly assists clients with shareholder arrangements, commercial contracts and strategic corporate structuring. Vincent adopts a commercially focused approach, delivering practical legal solutions in restructuring and distress scenarios where timing, risk management and decisive action are critical.

Vincent joined Fluxmans in July 2026 as a Director in the Business Rescue, Dispute Resolution & Insolvency Litigation practice. Prior to joining the firm, he founded and managed a boutique corporate and commercial law practice, advising entrepreneurs, SMEs and corporate stakeholders on restructuring, disputes and commercial matters.

Vincent holds an LL.B degree from University of South Africa (UNISA) and has a particular interest in business rescue, insolvency law and corporate governance.
