

September 6, 1973

The Town Council of the Town of Eva, Alabama met in special communication in their hall at 7:30 p.m.

This special meeting was called for the purpose of electing someone to fill the unexpired term of councilman R. L. Livingston, who passed away Aug. 14, 1973. After a discussion of who was available and would serve, the discussion was left open until our regular communication.

The meeting was adjourned.
