

The Town of Eva held its annual safety meeting December 12, 2002, at 6:30 p.m. Bobby's Fisherman's Catch with the volunteers of the Eva VFD, Library, Recreation Board, Industrial Board, and the Medical Board. Present from the Town Council were the following: Mayor Gary Livingston, Council Members C. C. Mosteller, C. C. Mosteller, Brian Brown, Kent Chambers, Bert Collins, Clerk Judy Fortenberry and Assistant Clerk Angela Holmes. Also present were Morgan County Commissioners Stisher, Clarke, Glasscock, and George, Sheriff McBride, and Major Corley with the Morgan County Sheriff's Office.

Guest speaker was Fire Chief Charles Johnson with the City of Decatur.

Mayor opened the meeting by welcoming everyone and thanking each for his or her time that is donated for the betterment of the Town of Eva. After welcome Mayor asked Mr. Collins to bless the food. After the meal Mayor turned the meeting over to Chief Johnson.

Chief Johnson talked on the need for a better commitment of small communities along with the bigger cities to be able to provide services needed in case of an emergency, be it an act of God or terrorists attack.

After Chief Johnson's talk the Mayor asked Eva's Fire Chief Holmes if he would like to speak – Chief Holmes thanked his firefighters for the job they do providing not only firefighting but emergency medical treatment. Elise Livingston thanked her staff from the library.

Mayor adjourned the meeting at 7:45 p.m.
