

The Town of Eva held its 2003 Safety Meeting December 16, 2003 at 6:30 p.m. at Bobby's Fisherman Catch, employees and volunteers for the Town of Eva was present. Mayor Livingston called the meeting to order and thanked everyone for coming out and for all the work they do for the Town. Mayor pointed out that without each of them volunteering their time this town could not function as we do.

James Henderson gave invocation.

After the meal Mayor Livingston introduced guest speaker Bob Burrell, District Attorney for Morgan County. Mr. Burrell spoke on drugs and the problems we are facing here in Morgan County at this time. Mr. Burrell went into detail on which drugs were present here in our area, how to tell if someone was doing drugs and what to do. He opened the floor for questions of which there were several, with Sheriff Bartlett taking part in the questions and answers.

Mayor introduced each of the organizations present and gave each chairperson a chance to acknowledge his/her volunteers and workers.

Mayor thanked Sheriff Bartlett and Chief Corley for all the help we received from the Morgan County Sheriff's Office.

Morgan County Commissioner Larry Bennich and District 3 Commissioner Don Stisher were present also. Mr. Stisher thanked the Fire Department for all their help during time of storms when it's not easy for the County to get here to clear roads and streets.

Chief Holmes thanked his men for making the Fire Department what it is today. He pointed out when a firemen sets down you never know when you will get a call, and if that call comes in when your eating then you get up and go, the fire will not wait for one to eat, or if the weather is good or bad you go out into it.

Athelia Gibbs introduced her staff and volunteers and thanked each for all their time and dedication to the Library.

Mayor Livingston introduced our new Council Member James Henderson, who took office on December 15, 2003. Mr. Henderson filled Place Number 4, which was vacant due to the death of C. C. Mosteller.
