Welcome to Exploration 27

Exploration 27 is the premier global conference dedicated to advancing the science, technology, and collaboration that drives mineral exploration. Taking place in Toronto, Canada from October 23–28, 2027, the event will bring together geoscientists, industry leaders, researchers and innovators from across the mining and exploration sectors. Part of the renowned Decennial Mineral Exploration Conferences (DMEC) series, this highly successful event has been held once every ten years since 1967.

This once-a-decade gathering offers a unique lens on the technologies, strategies and partnerships that have shaped mineral exploration. Under the theme Frontiers in Exploration: Intelligence, Innovation, Collaboration, Exploration 27 will spotlight cutting-edge developments in geoscience, artificial intelligence, geophysics, geochemistry and responsible exploration strategies. Our goal is for every attendee to leave inspired and better equipped to lead in the future of resource discovery.
