

Your Information. Your Rights. Our Responsibilities.

This notice describes:

- HOW HEALTH INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED
- YOUR RIGHTS WITH RESPECT TO YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION
- HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT CONCERNING A VIOLATION OF THE PRIVACY OR SECURITY OF YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION, OR OF YOUR RIGHTS CONCERNING YOUR INFORMATION

YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO A COPY OF THIS NOTICE (IN PAPER OR ELECTRONIC FORM) AND TO DISCUSS IT WITH MICHELE GAVIN, DIRECTOR OF BENEFITS AT 515-875-4500 OR MICHELEGAVIN@LCSLIVING.COM. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS.

Please review it carefully.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have the right to:

- Consent to most uses and disclosures of your health information
- Get a copy of your health and claims records
- Correct your health and claims records
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Discuss this notice with someone in our program
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

YOUR CHOICES

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Answer coverage questions from your family and friends
- Provide disaster relief
- Market our services and sell your information

OUR USES AND DISCLOSURES

We may use and share your information as we:

- Help manage the health care treatment you receive
- Run our organization
- Pay for your health services
- Administer your health plan
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law
- Respond to organ and tissue donation requests and work with a medical examiner or funeral director
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

In these circumstances, we must protect your information and limit how we use and share it.

YOUR RIGHTS

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of health and claims records

- You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We may charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct health and claims records

- You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say “no” to your request, but we’ll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say “yes” if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our health care operations after you have provided consent for all those purposes.
- We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if, for example, it could affect your care. If we agree to your request, we may still share this information in the event that you need emergency treatment.

Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why.
- We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We’ll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly upon such request.

Discuss this notice with someone in our program

You can ask questions or obtain more information about this notice and our privacy practices by calling or emailing the contact person at the top of this notice.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

YOUR CHOICES

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases, we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes

- Sale of your information

OUR USES AND DISCLOSURES

How do we typically use or share your health information?

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Help manage the health care treatment you receive

We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you.

Example: A doctor sends us information about your diagnosis and treatment plan so we can arrange additional services.

Run our organization

- We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary.
- We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. This does not apply to long term care plans.

Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you.

Example 2: A doctor treating you for a chronic condition asks a doctor at our program about your health condition and medications you are taking, for example, to avoid complications

Pay for your health services

We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services.

Example: We share information about you with your dental plan to coordinate payment for your dental work.

Administer your plan

We may disclose your health information to your health plan sponsor for plan administration.

Example: Your company contracts with us to provide a health plan, and we provide your company with certain statistics to explain the premiums we charge.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. And in all cases, if we have substance use disorder patient records about you, subject to 42 CFR part 2, we cannot use or share information in those records in civil, criminal, or legislative investigations or proceedings against you without (1) your consent or (2) a court order or subpoena. For more information see: <https://www.hhs.gov/hipaa/for-individuals/guidance-materials-for-consumers/index.html>

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence, only as required by applicable law
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

For your medical emergencies

We may use or share your health information with health care providers or emergency personnel when needed to provide you with emergency treatment or to respond to a serious and immediate threat to your health or safety, even when you are unable to consent. This is allowed under HIPAA's rules for treatment and emergency disclosures.

Do research

We can use or share your information for health research. Researchers cannot include any patient identifying information in their reports about the research.

Comply with the law

We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests and work with a medical examiner or funeral director

- We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
- We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests

We can use or share health information about you:

- For workers' compensation claims
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Legal Proceedings and Lawful Process

We may use or share your health information as permitted or required by law when responding to legal proceedings. This includes disclosures in response to a valid court order, warrant, subpoena, or other lawful process, consistent with HIPAA's rules for judicial and administrative proceedings (45 CFR §164.512(e)) and law-enforcement requests (45 CFR §164.512(f)). When responding to legal requests, we disclose only the information required and follow all conditions and limitations imposed by HIPAA.

Communicate within our program and with contractors

We may use and disclose your information within our health plan and with organizations that help us administer our program, including contractors and business associates who perform services for us. These disclosures occur only as permitted by HIPAA for health care operations.

Respond to audits and program oversight

We may use and share your information for health oversight and health care operations. This includes sharing with government agencies that are authorized by law to conduct audits, inspections, and licensure activities, and with accrediting organizations to support accreditation, quality assessment and improvement, and program evaluation of our health plan. We share only the minimum necessary information as required by law.

Disclosure to Law Enforcement

We may disclose information to law enforcement if we believe, in good faith, that it is evidence of a crime that occurred on our premises, or to report certain crimes during a medical emergency that did not occur on our premises. In these situations, we will disclose only what the law allows in these situations.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- We are required to obtain your consent for most uses and sharing of your information.
- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

With Your Written Consent (42 CFR Part 2)

If you provide written consent, we may use or disclose your Substance Use Disorder (SUD) information in the following ways:

- To the person or organization you name in your consent.
Part 2 allows you to decide who may receive your SUD information through a written consent.
- To prevent multiple enrollments in withdrawal management or maintenance treatment programs.
Part 2 permits disclosures for this purpose when authorized by your consent or as otherwise allowed by law.
- To report prescribed SUD treatment medications to a state Prescription Drug Monitoring Program when required by law.
Part 2 allows this type of disclosure only when a state statute mandates such reporting.

Additional Protections for SUD Information (42 CFR Part 2)

For records related to Substance Use Disorder (SUD) treatment, we will not disclose your information in any civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceeding without your written consent or a court order that meets the requirements of 42 CFR Part 2.

Respond to audits and program oversight

For Substance Use Disorder (SUD) records protected by 42 CFR Part 2, organizations performing audits or evaluations must agree in writing not to redisclose your information and must destroy or return identifying information when the audit or evaluation is complete.

Redisclosure Rules for Substance Use Disorder (SUD) Information

If you authorize us to disclose your SUD records to other health care providers or health plans for treatment, payment, or health care operations, those recipients may redisclose your information as permitted by the HIPAA Privacy Rule. However, your SUD information may not be used or disclosed in any civil, criminal, administrative, or legislative proceeding against you without your written consent or a court order that meets the requirements of 42 CFR Part 2.

We will include the required Part 2 notice prohibiting unauthorized redisclosure with every disclosure of SUD information.

CHANGES TO THE TERMS OF THIS NOTICE

We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request on our website, and we will mail a copy to you.
