

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AUSTRALIA NEW ZEALAND SCREEN ASSOCIATION APPOINTS ANDREW FISCHER AS SENIOR DIRECTOR, ADVOCACY & PUBLIC POLICY

SYDNEY – 7 MAY, 2026 The Australia New Zealand Screen Association (ANZSA) has announced the appointment of Andrew Fischer as Senior Director, Advocacy & Public Policy, commencing 6 May 2026. Andrew will report to Paul Muller, Chief Executive Officer, ANZSA.

Andrew joins ANZSA with more than 15 years' experience in public policy, advocacy and government relations across Commonwealth, state and local jurisdictions. He brings deep expertise advising ministers and senior government leaders on complex regulatory issues, with a strong track record shaping policy in consumer markets, infrastructure, energy and emerging digital platform regulation.

Most recently, Andrew served as Head of Policy and Research at the Green Building Council of Australia, where he led national government engagement and policy advocacy on behalf of a diverse membership representing more than $550 billion in market capitalisation. His career also includes senior advisory roles in the Office of the Premier of Victoria, the Victorian Government, the Commonwealth Government, and the Office of a South Australian Minister.

Paul Muller, CEO of ANZSA, said: "Andrew brings exceptional public policy expertise and a proven ability to operate at the highest levels of government. His experience navigating complex regulatory environments, building cross-sector coalitions and leading effective advocacy strategies will significantly strengthen ANZSA's engagement with governments across Australia and New Zealand at a critical time for our industry."

Andrew Fischer, said: "ANZSA plays an important role in supporting a globally connected screen industry and championing the conditions that enable creativity, investment, and growth. The screen sector is not only a powerful cultural force, but also a major contributor to jobs, innovation, and economic growth across Australia and New Zealand. I'm delighted to be joining the organisation and look forward to working with Paul and the ANZSA team to advance meaningful outcomes for members across the region."

Andrew's appointment reinforces ANZSA's commitment to strong, evidence-based advocacy and constructive engagement with governments, regulators and industry stakeholders.

ENDS

For more information please contact: Stephen Jenner, +61 466 402 337

ABOUT ANZSA: Australia New Zealand Screen Association (ANZSA) represents the film, television and streaming industry in Australia and New Zealand. Members include: Netflix, Paramount Pictures, Sony Pictures, Universal Studios, The Walt Disney Studios, Prime Video & Amazon MGM Studios, and Warner Bros. Discovery. <https://anzsa.film/who-we-are/>