About

At B + Co, we strive to make sure each guest feels right at home. We offer an inviting atmosphere where everyone is welcome. Everything at B + Co is chosen with intention, from the music on our playlist to the products used on your hair, we want only the best for you! Our desire is to make every client feel valued, confident and loved.

Owner and Stylist Brittany Byrd started B + Co as a private studio in 2016 out of a desire to offer a more customized experience for her clients. In 2019, she opened the current space in Huntersville, NC, and it has since grown to an amazing team of 5 talented professionals. Our stylists are a blend of independent and staff. This gives us the freedom to customize a unique product that best fits our clients' needs and budget. We work together to create a collaborative culture and experience for our clients.

B + Co offers custom color, extensions, and luxury hair and scalp treatments. We only use quality, top of the line products from brands like Milkshake, Morphosis, and Voce.

Brittany Byrd
Owner/Stylist

Brittany officially pursued her passion for hair in 2013, however her experience in the industry began in 2007 as her aunt's assistant while she was in high school and college. Her love of both art and science drew her to a career as a stylist.

She specializes in lived in blondes, extensions, and dimensional brunettes. She has multiple certifications in hand tied extensions and is immersed in continuing education both in person and online to advance her skillset. She believes the most important part of a hair appointment is the consultation, carefully asking all the right questions to find a look that best suits her client.

Brittany opened B+Co in 2016 to create a space for her clients to feel valued while enjoying a positive, relaxing atmosphere. In 2019 B+Co moved to its current location in Huntersville and has grown into a beautiful space with other amazing stylists joining her team. Her goal is for anyone who walks into the salon to feel comfortable and welcomed, and to leave feeling refreshed and confident.
