Market Overview

Belmont

Historic Roots with Connected Living

Belmont is a city in Gaston County, North Carolina, located approximately 12 miles west of Charlotte along the Catawba River. Incorporated in 1895, the city is governed by a council-manager system and focuses on providing reliable municipal services for residents and businesses. Its close proximity to Charlotte's employment centers and Charlotte Douglas International Airport makes Belmont an attractive location, supporting a growing economy with a strong base of thriving local businesses, particularly in its historic downtown.
