

WOODMERE INSIDE + OUTSIDE

Enjoy an overview of Woodmere's history, collection-based exhibitions, outdoor sculptures, jazz and classical concerts, and family programming.

THE A.B.C.'S OF ARTHUR B. CARLES: HIS WORLD OF COLOR AND LEGACY OF MODERNISM

Learn the story of one of the most important artists and teachers in Philadelphia. Carles was inspired by the high-keyed vitality and color in the work of Henri Matisse and other artists he knew during his experiences in early 20th c. Paris. His influence sustains the legacy of richly colored, painterly abstraction in Philadelphia.

DOCENTS ON THE ROAD

Woodmere's Docents on the Road is an outreach initiative for bringing Philadelphia art and artists to your community. Our experienced docents visit your facility and bring the museum's collection and exhibitions to you in a PowerPoint presentation designed to suit the interests of your organization or group.

We are proud to offer the following presentations & information about scheduling a Docents on the Road visit.

ILLUSTRATING CHANGE: THE RED ROSE GIRLS AND 20TH CENTURY SUFFRAGE

Learn the stories of Jessie Willcox Smith, Elizabeth Shippen Green, and Violet Oakley who were among the most prominent and prolific artists of their time. These remarkable Philadelphia artists became an example of the possibilities for women in the workforce during the suffrage movement.

THOMAS HOVENDEN & HELEN CORSON HOVENDEN: FAMILY TIES

Hear the stories of Thomas Hovenden and Helen Corson, whose love for each other, their family and the arts was reflected in their work and life. These two influential Philadelphia artists were deeply affected by the inequalities of humanity and the ever-changing world around them after the Civil War.

Docent led PowerPoint presentations and guided discussions are based on the museum's collection and can be designed to meet the interest of your audience.

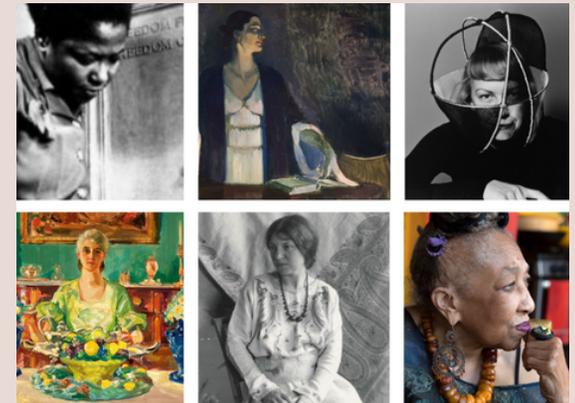

UN-PEAL-ING THE CONNECTIONS IN THE FOUNDER'S GALLERY

From Woodmere's
Founder, Charles
Knox Smith, to the Peale Family of Artists

Join us for a journey through Woodmere's beautifully restored Founder's Gallery and discover the connections between Woodmere's founder, Charles Knox Smith, the Peale Family of artists, and Smith's prize collections.

MORE THAN A PRETTY FACE: WOMEN OF WOODMERE'S COLLECTION

Discover the stories of 25 remarkable women artists and their amazing journeys. The path was not easy for many of them. This presentation recognizes and celebrates their artistic achievements.

Fee: $100. For details and to schedule a presentation contact education@woodmereartmuseum.org