The Institute of Management Technology (IMTAA) in collaboration with Zopper is excited to launch the 2026 IMTAA Exclusive Base Insurance Program.

The Base insurance program brings to you group insurance benefits of a high sum insured at very attractive terms and conditions, without any medical test. The additional advantage of this group insurance is that it helps our alums who may not be able to avail such benefits in retail policies owing to existing medical conditions and/or advanced age.

Alumni can Enrol or Renew for this plan

Base Health Program

The Base insurance program brings to you group insurance benefits of attractive terms and conditions, without any medical test. The additional advantage of this group insurance is that it helps our alums who may not be able to avail such benefits in retail policies owing to existing medical conditions and/or advanced age.

1. Where can I see the premiums applicable to me?

A: You will be able to see the premium on the enrolment portal as part of your enrolment journey - based on the sum insured.

2. Who will administer this plan? Who is the insurer and who is the TPA?

A. The Institute of Management Technology Alumni Association will administer the plan. Oriental Insurance Limited is the insurer. TPA is Ericson.

3. Will this plan work in conjunction with my group health insurance scheme provided by my employer?

A. Yes. Absolutely.

4. Will this plan work in conjunction with an individual health insurance plan that I have already purchased?

A. Yes. Absolutely.

5. Are there any complications in the claim process in case the base policy?

A. No. This Base health policy is not dependent and has its own coverages.

6. Which account will my premium payment be transferred to?

A. The amount will be transferred to the account of the Solvy Tech Solutions (Zopper). Solvy Tech Solutions (Zopper) will collect the money on behalf of the IMTAA & will transfer the money to the Insurer for the policy issuance of the Alumni.

7. Does the proposed plan apply to or is useful to those who are NRI- permanently based abroad but spending sizable time in India?

A. Yes-since this policy permits claim which arise in India and for hospitalizations within the borders of India.

8. Who is the TPA?

A. TPA for the program is Ericson.

9. Once this plan comes into force, are alumni allowed to join the plan at any point of time based on allowable age limit?

A. Alumni can renew their policy or buy new policy when the enrolment window is open. All alumni are eligible to join the plan. Hence it is in the best interest of the group that we don't defer the joining

10. Would it require health check-up/tests before enrolment?

A. No, there is no requirement of a health check-up. In contrast, almost all individual plans require a medical test, which is often a hassle

11. i) How can I enrol for the program?

ii) Why is it only through the IMTAA Web Portal?

A. i) You can enrol for the program through the IMTAA Web Portal. You will find the tab in the Alumni Initiatives section ii) This program is limited to IMT alumni. Since all users of the IMTAA Web Portal are considered to be part of the IMT community and verified alumni, registration is enabled only through the IMTAA Web Portal. There are certain programs that are not granted regular alumni status, but have access to the Web Portal. They can also enrol for the Base Health insurance program and avail the benefits.

iii) Please enrol through IMTAA Portal <https://www.imtalumni.com/page/insurance-716>

12. If two IMTians are married does it make sense to have the younger spouse buy this for the family?

A. No. The age of the oldest member in the family unit is considered to arrive at the slab rate

13. Who is the Claim Settlement ratio of Oriental Insurance Company?

A. The claim settlement ratio of the Oriental Insurance Company is 95.49%

14. If I get married in the future, will I be able to add my spouse at no extra cost? Also, children in future?

A. Yes. One can add both children/spouse on a future date when entry is allowed during renewal or during the Policy period through Endorsement

15. Who will determine the alumni status?

A. IMTAA will verify.

16. Are payments for the Base Insurance eligible for 80D or we get income tax rebate for insurance?

A. Yes

17. Can one exit the plan and join back again?

A. No it is not allowed.

18. If the premium is increased in the renewal year, can I pull back if I do not like the price?

A. Once you don't renew your insurance, you will lose the renewal benefits & will be allowed to join in as a new user.

19. The age is sign-up age or actual age at the time of premium payment?

A. Age is the completed age as on 14th August 2026 as the policy inception date will be the same

20. What is the expected rise of premium from year next year?

A. The next year premium rise will depend on the claims ratio of the entire group as this is a group policy

21. If we have existing insurance, can this also be taken additionally or we can switch our existing plan with this insurance?

A. This is an additional Base Health insurance.

22. The premium is annual or monthly?

A. Annual

23. In case of renegotiation, how will the PED of 1 Year work? If the insurer is changed, will the 1 Year clause kick in again?

A. PED waiver will be applicable in next year's policy renewal. During renewal, the 1 year wait period on PED will apply for fresh enrolments in the policy

24. I am an IMT alumni based in the UAE (NRI). I wanted to know how to enrol if we do not have an Indian mobile number?

A. Indian Mobile number is required for policy issuance. You can also share contact number of your family members if you don't have Indian Number. Also, you can add your International number as WhatsApp Number in the Enrolment Journey

25. Premium for people over 85 years vary each year?

A. The costs would be standard for people above 85 and would not vary by person but the costs for each slab would vary depending on claim ratio

26. Is entry into the policy possible at the time of renewal, if not opted now?

A. Yes. But it is advisable to register now as it will ensure that by next year, at the time of renewal, PED waiting period waiver can be availed.

27. Will we get a better rate if we decrease the Sum Insured to 3 Lakhs?

A. Yes, you can choose 3 Lakhs Sum insured for a better rate.

28. Will premium increase be the same for everyone or will it increase the basis of an individual's past claims?

A. This is a group plan and hence the price decrease or increase will be for the entire group, by age band.

29. Most people above 65 won't have kids below 25, so effectively you are paying a lot for 2 people?

A. Your pricing will be based on the rate applicable for 2 people

30. Who issues the receipt for the payment made by an individual - the insurance company or the alumni association?

A. Receipt against funds transferred would be issued by the Insurance Company

Coverage

31. Why are aspects like maternity not part of it?

A. It has been observed that benefits like Maternity only helps a very small population but the premium impact on the overall group is high so we have decided to opt against it. Also, most of the corporate insurance does cover Maternity.

32. Consumables Coverage Covered?

A. No

33. Would a consolidated list of coverage points be shared?

A. Yes; this will be provided by Insurer post policy issuance

34. Will there be an age bar at any time/renewal?

A. 85 years is the entry. Once an alum or a family member enters the program before 85 years of age, he/she can continue renewing the policy in subsequent years as long as the insurance program continues with IMTAA

35. I am an NRI having a global employer coverage and am 58 years old, retiring in 2 years. Should I take this now?

A. You can take this plan.

36. Will Covid-19 treatment be covered?

A. Yes.

37. If the Sum insured chosen is 10 Lacs and I take 3 policies (immediate family, parents and in-laws), then will 10 L be covered for each of the 3 policies OR just once whichever gets triggered first?

A. There are 3 policy combination in our program

1. Alumni, Spouse & Kids
2. Parents
3. Parents in Law

The Sum Insured for each policy combination is different

38. How would cashless work, with a sum insured of 5 Lakhs?

A. One has to intimate the Insurer through the Hospital TPA desk to avail the cashless facility. Also, please reach out to Zopper Support team for all the support.

39. If an alum crosses 85 years, and the alum's spouse at that stage is less than 85 years, would the spouse continue to get enrolled in the policy after the alum crosses 85 years?

A. Once the alum enters the policy before 85 years of age, he/she can renew the policy even after crossing 85 years. It is mandatory for alumni to be the proposer, hence alumni have to take policy under eligible conditions, only then, he/she can add spouse and kids.

40. Is the policy open for Alums who are now foreign citizens, while Parents still hold Indian citizenship?

A. Yes. Alum will have to enroll himself/herself to avail the policy for parents/in-laws. Since the policy jurisdiction is India, this can be used for treatments in India after the deductibles are also spent in India.

41. Is there co-pay in the policy for anyone?

A. No

42. If the alum passes away does the policy continue for family?

A. Yes, family will remain to be covered till the next renewal
