

HOLMES UNIVERSITY FLORIDA

Financial Assistance

Financial Aid

Students with financial needs will be able to consult with the Student Services Manager.

Holmes University Florida offers scholarships to incoming students based on specific criteria for selection including academic achievement and financial need. All students are eligible to apply for these scholarships under the same circumstances, and Holmes maintains all records relevant to its selection and awarding process.

Holmes University Florida does not presently participate in United States Department of Education Title IV financial aid programs.

Financial Assistance

HUF is not currently Title IV eligible. Students may meet with the Student Services Manager if they are experiencing any form of financial hardship.

Where students are applying for a private student loan, it must be remembered that they are borrowing money to attend a University. Students must repay the loan as well as interest that accrues. It is important to understand repayment options so students can successfully repay loans.
