

HOLMES UNIVERSITY FLORIDA

Equal Treatment and the Student Charter

Learners can expect HUF to:

- Provide a collegiate learning environment in which every student, independent of their age, culture, physical and mental health, or financial circumstances, has the opportunity to engage with all aspects of University life.
- Treat all students and staff with respect and courtesy, regardless of gender, marital status, family status, age disability, sexual orientation, race or religion.

HUF expects learners to:

- Interact with staff and colleagues professionally and treat others with respect and courtesy, regardless of gender, marital status, family status, age, disability, sexual orientation, race or religion.

HUF is committed to cultivating a community where scholarship and personal development are nurtured, innovation and entrepreneurship encouraged and social conscience developed. HUF will provide opportunities for students from all backgrounds. Students and staff have a collective responsibility to engage with the program, participate in college life and respect the services and facilities provided.

Source: Holmes University Florida Academic Catalog 2026/27, "Student Charter", pp. 47-48. Where there is any inconsistency between a policy and the Academic Catalog, the Academic Catalog prevails.