PROFILE

I'm Jason, a 36-year-old Visual Designer born in currently based in Montana. With over 15 years of experience across in-house teams and freelance roles, I've built a career around the seamless fusion of aesthetics and storytelling.

I specialize in visual design with a focus on motion and cinematography, and I'm passionate about the entire lifecycle of product and service design—from concept to execution. My strength lies in integrating diverse design elements to build powerful brand identities, generate awareness, and drive results across campaigns, products, and experiences.

A natural team player, I thrive in environments where collaboration fuels creativity. Whether I'm leading the creative direction of an event series or crafting immersive retail experiences, my approach always centers on meaningful, beautifully crafted design that connects and communicates.
