□ Note upon Application

◆ Startups applying for the startup program should note the following matters in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

- ① This program is a government-sponsored program that supports the necessary matters for startup activities, and if the awarded funds are used for any other purposes, falsely applied for, or fraudulently obtained, they may be subject to full disgorgement of the program costs and the entity shall be restricted from participation in any startup programs in accordance with the Criminal Act, the Act on Prohibition of False Claims for Public Funds and Recovery of Illicit Profits, the Subsidy Management Act, and the Integrated Management Guidelines for Startup Programs.
- ② If a startup fraudulently receives such funds, the one may be subject to a sanction surcharge of up to five times the amount to be recouped, including the amount used fraudulently.

- The application for this program must be submitted by the representative of the startup company, and if the representative participating in this program does not match the representative in the submitted documents including the program plan, the application may be disqualified and excluded from evaluation, or the selection and the agreement may be rescinded if discovered later.
 - If an applicant applies or is selected by intentionally or negligently copying, plagiarizing or stealing another person's program plan, sanctions shall be taken, such as prohibition on participating in the startup programs of the MSS (KISED, etc.) for three years, and disgorgement of all program costs.
- * Even if two or more individuals or entities are selected based on the same or similar program plan they have jointly prepared by agreement, all of them may be subject to sanctions such as restriction on participation upon being found to have plagiarized or copied each other's business plan.

- If an applicant for this program fails to comply with the notification and applicable regulations, or falsifies, steals, or omits any part of the application form and/or program plan, it may be excluded from evaluation or the selection may be revoked.
- In case of an entity headed by joint or sole representatives, all representatives must be “eligible to apply” and not be “excluded from applying” .
 - * The eligibility of the joint or sole representatives is re-reviewed after the selection is completed. If the ones are found to be ineligible, the applicants may be subject to measures such as restriction on participation and disgorgement of the program funds.
 -  If the agreement is signed by one of the joint or sole representatives, any representative other than the signatory of the agreement may not be eligible to apply for any startup program of the MSS in the future.
- Only those who have completed their application by the application/submission deadline shall be evaluated.
 - * No corrections, additions, substitutions, or additional submissions may be made after the deadline, even if there are omissions or errors in the documents submitted.

Note upon Evaluation

- Applicants whose eligibility cannot be verified due to failure to submit proof of eligibility shall be excluded from evaluation.
- The representative of the applying startup must participate by oneself in the entire evaluation process, and if the one is not present, the application shall be excluded from evaluation.
- Applicants may raise an opposition to the result of each phase of evaluation only once, from the date of notification of the result.

- The Implementing Institution may record or videotape the entire presentation evaluation in order to verify the fairness, etc. of the evaluation process.

Note upon Selection

- If any applicant selected for this program fails to comply with the notification and/or applicable regulations, or falsifies or omits any part of the program plan, it may be subject to measures such as cancellation of selection, restriction on participation in startup programs of the MSS, and/or disgorgement of the awarded funds.
- It shall be rechecked whether the selected ones satisfy the application requirements. If any selected startup fails to meet the requirements, sanctions may be imposed such as cancellation of selection or agreement, disgorgement of program costs, restriction of participation, etc.
- The selected ones shall comply with this notification, the Operating Guidelines for SME Startup Programs, the Integrated Management Guidelines for Startup Programs, the Detailed Management Standards for this program, and the guidance of the Implementing Institution and/or the Management Agency, and any disadvantages and responsibilities arising from non-compliance shall be borne by the startups who had applied for this program.
- The Government subsidies may be paid in installments after the agreement is reached, and the total program costs shall be managed and operated through the Management Agency and the accounting firm in charge of this program.

- ※ The government grants may only be used for separately determined items (outsourcing costs, intellectual property rights, labor costs, payment fees, travel expenses, advertising and promotion costs, etc.), and if a participant does not have proof of the expenses, they may not be reimbursed, or the amount may be recouped if already paid.
- Government subsidies shall be paid on a reimbursement basis after the startup incurs the expenses and submits supporting documents for verification.
- Depending on the results of the interim (spot)/final inspection of this program, measures may be taken such as suspension of the startup program, or disgorgement of the awarded funds.
- Change of representative during the term of the agreement may result in sanctions, including rescission of the agreement.
- If any selected startup or representative engages in any act or is involved in any litigation in violation of the Korean and international laws during the term of the agreement, it may be subject to revocation of the selection or termination of the agreement, restriction on participation, and disgorgement of the awarded funds in accordance with applicable guidelines.
- The selected ones must open a bank account (for program costs) in a commercial bank in Korea
 - * If a selected startup cannot open a bank account or make transaction in commercial banks in Korea, its selection may be cancelled.
