- Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Commonwealth)

- Australian Human Rights Commission Act 1986 (Commonwealth)

4. Safety and Health

Students are expected to act safely at all times. Report any incident as soon as possible after it happens – if unsure, talk to your trainer first.

If you notice a hazard during training, bring it to your trainer's attention straight away. Hazards are to be fixed wherever possible and then reported. If they can't be fixed immediately, they are to be barricaded and reported once the area is safe.

If we cannot complete a program already underway, students will either be placed into an equivalent course or have fees in excess of $1,500 refunded, in accordance with the Compliance Requirements.

8.1 Full Refunds

Students who withdraw are entitled to a full refund where:

- A course, qualification or unit is cancelled or rescheduled to a time unsuitable for the student.
- A student is not given a place due to maximum numbers being reached.

Accountable officers may approve a full refund at any time during delivery if a class is cancelled due to declining numbers, no available trainer, or other RTO-caused circumstances.

8.2 Pro Rata Refunds

Accountable officers may approve a pro rata refund at any time during delivery if a student withdraws for reasons of personal circumstance beyond their control, for example:

- Serious illness resulting in extended absence from class.
- Injury or disability preventing completion of the program.
- Other exceptional reasons at the discretion of the accountable officer.

Relevant documentary evidence (e.g. a medical certificate) is required in all cases. Refund details are retained for audit purposes, and the enrolment form is annotated to show a refund has been given.

9. Student Support (External Agencies)

Students with additional needs are encouraged to speak to a staff member before training commences, so we can arrange an appropriate referral where external support is required. Every course includes an Australian Counselling Services (ACS) flyer, offering free counselling to RTOs and students, to support mental wellness.

Students are encouraged (but not required) to disclose any disability or additional learning need before enrolment. We will work with you to identify and implement reasonable adjustments to training and assessment – contact the Training Manager to discuss your needs confidentially.

10. Desert to Coast Training Code of Conduct

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing is committed to maintaining high standards of professionalism, ethics, and quality in all aspects of our training and assessment services. This Code outlines the key principles guiding our behavior and operations.

10.1 Integrity and Ethics

We act honestly, fairly and transparently in all dealings. Information provided to students, clients and regulators is always accurate and truthful.

10.2 Compliance with Legislation

We comply with all relevant laws and standards, including the Vocational Education and Training Act 1996 (WA), TAC's 2025 Registration Standards, the Work Health and Safety Act 2020 and Regulations 2022, and the Privacy Act 1988.

10.3 Quality Training and Assessment

We provide training and assessment that meets industry and learner needs. All trainers and assessors hold credentials meeting the requirements of the Credential Policy, which forms part of the 2025 Standards for RTOs.

10.4 Student-Focused Approach

We prioritise student welfare and success, and provide support, guidance and learning resources to help students achieve their goals.

10.5 Access and Equity

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing is committed to promoting equal opportunity and takes active steps to eliminate discrimination in all aspects of our work. This includes providing a culturally safe and inclusive environment for all learners, including Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students and students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, and making reasonable adjustments for students with disability or additional learning needs.

10.6 Accountability and Transparency

Records are complete, accurate and securely maintained. We communicate openly and are accountable to students, staff and regulators.

10.7 Continuous Improvement

We regularly review and improve our services based on feedback and performance outcomes. All staff are available for students to provide feedback to at any time. Students may complete an Opportunity for Improvement Form, which is submitted to our regular management meeting for review.

At course completion, students are also issued a Student Satisfaction Survey via our Student Management system (RTOPILOT) – a nationally consistent tool used to collect feedback on your experience with Desert to Coast. Completing and returning this survey helps us improve our services and meet our reporting obligations. Feedback is collated and analysed to identify opportunities for improvement, recorded in our Continuous Improvement Report, and submitted to our regular management meeting for review.

Training and assessment practices are kept current and effective.

10.8 Privacy and Confidentiality

We safeguard all personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988. We ensure that:

- Only necessary information is collected.
- You are informed of how your data is used.
- Data is stored securely and used only for authorised purposes.
- You can access and correct your information.
- Assessment evidence is securely retained for a minimum of two years after course completion.
- Students and former students may request copies of their training records and AQF certification documentation from our administration team.
- We are required to collect and report student data through AVETMISS to NCVER and to state training authorities.
- Your personal and training data may be shared with government agencies for statistical and regulatory purposes as required by law.

10.9 Safety and Wellbeing

A safe and healthy environment is provided for students and staff. All activities and facilities comply with relevant WHS legislation.

10.10 Professionalism

Staff and students act with respect, courtesy and professionalism at all times, reflecting the values and standards of Desert to Coast Training and Assessing.

Breaches of this Code may result in a warning, suspension from training, or termination of enrolment at the discretion of management. Decisions will be made fairly, with the student given an opportunity to respond.

10.11 Attendance Policy

All students are required to begin training on time as per booking details. Late attendance may result in refusal of entry to the course, with course fees forfeited.

10.12 Change of Contact Details

11. Training Information

11.1 Responsibilities of Desert to Coast Training and Assessing

We are responsible for providing quality training and assessment, consistently compliant with the 2025 Standards for RTOs. As part of this, we issue certification in the form of Statements of Attainment complying with the Australian Qualifications Framework. If there is a change to any agreed services, we will notify you at the earliest opportunity. You have the right to request and access your own training records – see administration for directions.

Contact methods: phone or email during business hours, 8:00am-4:00pm Monday to Friday. Expected response time is within 2 business days. Training support is available throughout your training product, not just during class time. Contact details are on our website.

11.2 Provision of Training and Assessment Resources

We provide all resources necessary to complete your training and assessment – this may include safety glasses, helmets, hearing and hand protection, paperwork and writing equipment. Please present with closed-in footwear and clothing appropriate for the course (e.g. high-visibility clothing with long sleeves where required). Specific clothing requirements will be advised before your course start date.

11.3 Flexible Learning and Assessment Procedures

We are committed to flexible delivery and are working toward greater options for our clients, including optional times and venues where possible, and on-site training in remote and regional areas. Our courses use a range of activities, teaching techniques, technology and materials to remain flexible and fair to all students.

11.4 Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

RPL is the process of collecting evidence about your previous training and life experience. A qualified trainer/assessor then judges whether competency has already been attained through that prior knowledge, activity and experience. Students who believe they already meet some or all of the requirements of their training may apply for RPL before training commences.

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing does not offer Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) for most courses. Due to the short duration and low cost of these courses relative to the duration and cost of an RPL assessment, RPL would offer limited value to participants; direct observation of practical skills in a controlled environment is required for these units.

If you still believe your prior knowledge is sufficient, you would need to practically demonstrate the requirements integral to the unit, including any safety-critical competencies that must be observed under controlled conditions, before undergoing assessment.

11.5 National Recognition / Credit Transfer

Under the National Standards, Desert to Coast Training and Assessing recognises Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other RTOs. Students applying for National Recognition must provide original Statements of Attainment as evidence.

National Recognition applies where the unit of competency enrolled in is the same as, or equivalent to, the unit for which a Statement of Attainment has already been issued. Your course trainer/manager will review the evidence against the unit's requirements, and a copy is kept on your student record. Credit may be used towards any appropriate unit/course we offer. There is no cost for National Recognition.

11.6 Unique Student Identifier (USI)

Unless exempt under section 5 of TAC's VET Data Policy, Desert to Coast Training and Assessing can only issue a qualification or Statement of Attainment after you have provided a verified USI, or after we have applied for one on your behalf. See the Student Information for the USI document at usi.gov.au.

11.7 Provision of Language, Literacy and Numeracy Assistance

Some of our courses assume a base level of literacy and numeracy consistent with industry expectations. Contact the Training Manager through reception if you need assistance with training or assessment. We conduct a pre-enrolment review of each student's LLN and digital literacy skills, which may involve a brief LLN assessment tool, and you will receive advice on whether your chosen course is appropriate for you based on this review.

11.8 Assessments

A request to re-mark an assessment must be made within four (4) weeks of results being published. A $50.00 charge for re-assessment and/or re-marking is non-refundable. Certificates/Statements of Attainment will not be issued while fees remain outstanding.

Key assessment principles include Authenticity (evidence must be your own genuine work; academic dishonesty or misrepresentation is not permitted); Currency (evidence must demonstrate current skills); and Reasonable Adjustments (you may request adjustments if needed).

11.9 Re-Assessment Policy

Students may appeal the recording of a 'Not Yet Competent' (NYC) result for any unit of competency or learning outcome, provided they had good attendance and reasonable participation in all assessments for that unit. If a student is assessed as NYC for part or all of a theory or practical assessment, reassessment must be offered in accordance with the requirements of the relevant unit(s) of competency or licence requirements, conducted in consultation with the student and assessor. Students wanting to appeal a result, can contact us using geraldton@desertto coast.com.au or by phoning the office at (08) 9923 1088 for assistance.

11.10 Assessment Only

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing offers the opportunity to undertake 'assessment only' through a Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) in the form of an assessment for our Heavy Vehicle Training only. A student may apply for this "Assessment only" option when booking their training. Evidence relied on to infer competence in an RPL assessment must include a component that determines the person is currently competent in the area being assessed. See 11.4 above for RPL statement on short courses.

11.11 Workplace Arrangements

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing does not engage in workplace training agreements with other organisations for the purposes of issuing Statements of Attainment for Nationally Recognised Training. No training or assessment is delivered by a third party on our behalf. Where we are engaged to deliver non-accredited Verification of Competency, the external organisation's procedures are followed, except where doing so would result in illegal or dangerous practices.

11.12 Issuing of Awards

Following successful completion of Nationally Recognised Training, you will be issued a Nationally Recognised Statement of Attainment within 30 calendar days of your successful assessment, provided all fees have been paid. This Statement of Attainment is recognised by every other RTO in Australia.

11.13 Changes to Agreed Services

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing reserves the right to cancel a course if insufficient bookings are received. If this happens, registered students are informed by phone or email and their fees refunded in full or credited to the next scheduled course – see Section 8, Refund Policy.

12. Complaints and Appeals

Desert to Coast Training and Assessing welcomes feedback to help improve our services and acknowledges it is the right of every client/student to complain. Our objective is always to reach a fair, satisfactory outcome for everyone involved. (PP2.9 Complaints Handling - Public)

You can give feedback at any time: verbally to your trainer, in writing to the Compliance Officer or Office Manager, via the student portal feedback questionnaire, or using the form available from reception.

What can a complaint or appeal be about?

A complaint is any expression of dissatisfaction with an action, product or service of Desert to Coast Training and Assessing. This can include, but is not limited to:

- Information provided to clients
- Delivery of training
- Staff behaviour
- Student behaviour
- Assessment methods or processes, including a Not Yet Competent (NYC) result
- Facilities or premises
- Record keeping
- Qualifications/Statements of Attainment issued or not issued
- Training and assessment resources

Grounds for appealing an assessment decision

- Criterion 1: assessment requirements or procedures were not published, not explained, or were changed without notice at the start of the unit.
- Criterion 2: you believe a mistake was made in your assessment. This does not automatically mean a complete re-mark – it means a detailed check to make sure nothing was overlooked.
- Criterion 3: you have verifiable information about relevant, unavoidable circumstances that directly and significantly affected your performance, such that the result does not fairly reflect your competence.

Stage 1 – Talk to your trainer

Speak directly with your trainer to resolve the matter informally. Do this within 28 calendar days of receiving your result. You may put the matter in writing at this stage, and you're entitled to a written response from your trainer clearly explaining the outcome and the reasons for it.

Stage 2 – Formal complaint or appeal to the RTO Management

If you're not satisfied with Stage 1 (including the time it took), submit your appeal in writing or verbally to the Director, Office Manager, Compliance Officer or Admin Staff. The Admin Staff can help you make the complaint if you so wish. You'll receive a written response within a reasonable time – normally acknowledgement will be within 24 hours from receiving the complaint. A written outcome of the investigation will be sent within 14 calendar days and resolution within 30 days – clearly explaining the outcome and reasons.

Initial Assessment and Categorisation - Desert to Coast Training and Assessing will triage complaints by classifying complaints based on severity, urgency, and nature, and prioritising cases that need immediate attention. An initial assessment and categorisation of the complaint will be conducted within 2 working days based on:

- Severity: Determine if the complaint involves safety, harassment, discrimination, or legal concerns, which would necessitate urgent action. Less severe complaints could involve general dissatisfaction or requests for improvement.
- Urgency: Consider how soon the issue needs to be resolved. Complaints that could impact ongoing training sessions or reputation may need to be escalated.
- Nature of Complaint: Identify if it's related to training and assessment, trainer behaviour, administrative issues, or facilities.

Where more than 60 calendar days are needed to finalise a complaint or appeal, we will tell you in writing why, and keep you updated on progress. Records of discussions and outcomes are kept confidential and stored securely, accessible only to the Director and Compliance Officer. The student is welcome to request a review by an independent party if the student asks, at no or low cost.

Stage 3 – Training Accreditation Council of WA (TAC)

If you're not satisfied with Stage 2 (including the time it took), you may take your complaint or appeal to the Training Accreditation Council of Western Australia (TAC), Desert to Coast's regulator, at no cost to you. You are also welcome to contact Consumer Protection WA for fee and refund disputes, National Training Complaints Hotline and the OAIC, since TAC won't handle those.

A student can generally raise a complaint with TAC about an RTO for a range of reasons, not only a failure of the internal appeal process itself.

To lodge a complaint with TAC:

- Give Desert to Coast Training and Assessing the opportunity to address the issues raised in your complaint first.
- Confirm Desert to Coast is registered with TAC (RTO 52388).
- Read the TAC Complaints About RTOs policy.
- Complete the online complaint form at rtoportal.tac.wa.gov.au/eform-complaint/

All students must hold and present a valid pre-requisite driver's licence before beginning heavy vehicle training. Relevant licence information is available at transport.wa.gov.au (heavy rigid, heavy combination, and multi-combination licensing pages).

Completion of training does not guarantee a decision of Competent, or that a Statement of Attainment will be issued.
