

Theology Threads | Season 2: Episode 6 Notes | Paul's Theology of the Body

Summary

Welcome to our longest episode yet of Theology Threads! Dr. Brian Jenkins and Pastor Miles Langrock sit down to discuss 1 Corinthians chapter 6, which is packed full of passages that have been misunderstood or misrepresented in the Church for a long time. Dealing with issues between fellow Christians, how the world perceives Churches, sexual immorality, and how you treat your body, this is an episode that required a lot of discussion time. Make sure to check out our previous episodes in season 2 to follow along in the letter of 1st Corinthians, and how it mirrors the Church today. You can email us with questions at hello@theothreads.com!

Reflection Questions

Either before you were a Christian or after becoming a Christian, were you ever turned away from a church because of how they presented themselves in public, such as fighting publicly or not acting Christlike?

Have you ever encountered 1 Corinthians 6:9 before? How did you perceive it or understand its meaning before this episode?

How does Paul's theology of the body, explained in the second half of this video challenge you?

If you could share one point from this episode with someone, what would it be and who would you share it with?

For further learning connected to this episode, check out these resources.

Read Paul, the Spirit, and the People of God by Gordon Fee

ISBN: 9781493440023

Read God's Empowering Presence: The Holy Spirit in the Letters of Paul by Gordon Fee

ISBN: 9781598564327

