

Theology Threads | Season 2: Episode 8 Notes | Can I Make People Sin?

Summary

In this week of Theology Threads, Dr. Brian Jenkins is joined by Pastor Canaan Baca to talk about a seemingly unassuming section of 1st Corinthians, which in reality packs a convicting punch for Christians. Our Chapter 8 discussion includes, which knowledge is really important, where the Trinity is in the Bible, and how we can harm newer Christians by pushing them too far. Make sure to check out our previous episodes in season 2 to follow along in the letter of 1st Corinthians, and how it mirrors the Church today. You can email us with questions at hello@theothreads.com

Reflection Questions

A powerful point from this episode is the idea that the important knowledge is the knowledge God has of you, not the knowledge you can acquire? How does this idea challenge you?

Have you ever struggled with something that isn't an issue for others? How does it make you feel when other people flaunt it in front of you?

Is there something you've felt is not a big deal and have struggled to understand why its an issue for others?

If you could share one point from this episode with someone, what would it be and who would you share it with?

For further learning connected to this episode, check out these resources.

Read Paul, the Spirit, and the People of God by Gordon Fee
ISBN: 9781493440023

Read God's Empowering Presence: The Holy Spirit in the Letters of Paul by Gordon Fee
ISBN: 9781598564327

