

Theology Threads | Season 6: Episode 2 Notes | Trials, Tribulations, and Temptations

Summary

Welcome to Episode 2 of season 6 in our study of the book of James! Today we continue to take a deeper look into the idea of joy in trials. Dr. Jenkins challenges us to set aside everything we've been taught before and think about approaching life's difficulties in a new way. He expands upon this idea and helps us understand the distinctions between trials and temptations. We hope you enjoy this episode and find it truly freeing!

Reflection Questions

What does the difference between trial and temptation mean to you?

Has there been a trial in your life that produced a characteristic in you that wouldn't have been there without it?

How can this episode help you to approach trials in a new way?

If you could share one thing from this episode with someone, what would it be and who would you share it with?

