

Washington State

ABLE SAVINGS PLAN

washingtonstateable.com

A flexible and convenient way for people living with disabilities to invest in their quality of life

ELIGIBILITY

- Onset of disability before age 46, AND
 - Meet disability requirements for SSI or SSDI, OR
 - Have a disability diagnosis signed by doctor

ACCOUNT FEATURES

- Online enrollment and management
- $25 minimum to open
- $35 annual maintenance fee
- Prepaid VISA debit card option
- Gifting platform
- Mobile app

WHO CAN OPEN AN ACCOUNT

- Person with a disability (beneficiary)
- Person chosen by the beneficiary
- Power of attorney
- Conservator or legal guardian
- Spouse, parent, sibling, or grandparent
- Representative payee (individual or organization)

QUALIFIED EXPENSES

Qualified disability expenses which help improve health, independence and/or quality of life:

- Education
- Housing
- Basic living expenses
- Transportation
- Employment training and support
- Assistive technology
- Personal support services
- Health, prevention and wellness
- Financial management
- Legal fees
- Funeral and burial

BALANCE AND CONTRIBUTION LIMITS

For 2026:

- $20,000 standard annual contribution limit
- $15,650 ALE to Work contribution limit
- $100,000 limit before SSI benefits are impacted
- $500,000 lifetime account limit

Learn more

For more information about Washington ALE, visit www.washingtonstateable.com or call 1.844.600.2253 (TTY 711) to obtain the Plan Disclosure Booklet, which includes investment objectives, risks, charges, expenses, and other important information. Read and consider it carefully before investing. Terms and conditions apply. Washington State ALE Savings Plan is administered by the WA State Department of Commerce.