

Circunomics Marketplace

Where batteries become circular and profit is leveraged.

The Circunomics marketplace is a platform that brings automotive OEMs, 2nd-Life applications, and Recyclers together. Driven by analytics, we are confident that you will find a perfect match.

Analytics-driven

Historical data facilitates a perfect match. With intelligence and personalization layered throughout the platform, our verified users enjoy a secure trading environment that delivers transparent and comprehensive results.

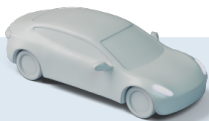

1. List your supply

List the batteries that you are seeking to trade and the Battery Matchmakers will get to work.

2. What do you need?

Upload exactly what you need. Our request feature both for batteries and for recycling lets you alert others of your exact needs and specifications.
