		CEP Progress Monitoring and Continuous Improvement Planning for End of Year (EOY) LSI explanation: Reviewing Data Profile	Implementation of the CEP is regularly monitored and revised as necessary based on student needs to ensure all students are provided with opportunities to meet challenging state academic standards. • Review Setting Progress Monitoring Targets for guidance on reviewing and analyzing current data and student performance trends to determine progress towards meeting Period 3 EOY benchmarks. Use the most current data to assess whether the implementation of the strategies, activities, and programs are positively impacting the school's results. • Engage other school community stakeholders and outside experts who have expertise in specific areas or programs to help accelerate progress in meeting the established targets, if necessary. Make any necessary adjustments to the action plans as experiences and the data justify. Consider EOY data when planning for the 2024-25 CEP. • Utilize the Progress Reporting Tool (PRT) in iPlan to report on period three EOY monitoring (Required for CSI, ATSI, TSI and Receivership); recommended best practice for all schools.	-SY23/24 ELA dropped 3% -SY23/24 Math went up 3% -4th grade has been stagnant and we have been working towards identifying the needs and how we can better meet these needs. -K-2 is making strides in interventions especially in literacy and progress monitoring. -All of our subgroups are categorized as LSI (local support and improvement) -we are still in good standing but have been in the bottom third percent for the past 7 years.

		Drafting the 2024-25 Comprehensive Education Plan in the Plan Portal Review of Drafted Priority 1: Reviewing CEP	• Use the outcomes from comprehensive needs assessment and the school's state accountability status to summarize data trends, priority needs, and root causes. Guidance and Resources: • Refer to the completed CEP Needs Assessment Worksheet to identify appropriate data sources, data trends, priority needs, and root causes.	CEP Priority of all students will read and write well -each grade band will have its own priority need in order to target the priority needs based on grade level data and standards. -progress monitoring has been implemented throughout all instruction -iReady and Acadience are screeners, students take a secondary diagnostic in order to target the specific deficits. -students have been identified as at risk students and have been provided with after school reading interventions.
		Building Consensus on Aligning the School-Based Budget with Annual Goals and Action Plans Preliminary Budget Plans Recap for Budget Spending from SY 24-25	• Build consensus around strategic use of all resources. • Align the school-based budget with annual goals and action plans to maximize efforts to improve student achievement. Guidance and Resources: • Refer to Funding for Our Schools for information on school-based budgets and allocations. • Galaxy Budget Allocations and Budget Summary (Galaxy Table of Organization Budget Galaxy Table of Organization) are located on the school's website under Reports: Budget and Finances	-Priority if necessary- gain human capital (more teachers if needed) -New budget will come out in July in order to review. -Title I -partnered with MMC for mothers day event and planning to do the same for fathers day -Title I, SLT, and PA

			• Refer to the School Allocation Memorandum for your school's Title I Allocation.
