Project Description

The Tishániik Tribal Farm is owned and operated by the Karuk Tribe to support the communities of Orleans, Somes Bar and the surrounding areas with food security and access. Located in the town of Orleans, with very little to no access to fresh produce at reasonable prices, the Tishániik Tribal Farm provides locally and organically grown produce at a suggested donation price. The community is regularly invited to the Farm to volunteer, for U-Pick days, field trips for schools, and scheduled tours.

Scope of Work

The Karuk Tribe requests proposals for the following Scope of Work for a Farm Manager required for the entire growing season at the Tishániik Tribal Farm in Orleans, CA. The Farm Manager is responsible for the clearing/brushing, planting, and cleaning, purchasing expendable farm supplies, providing lists to Karuk DNR Food Sovereignty staff for ordering of non-expendable supplies and equipment. The responsibilities include farm expansion (as necessary and agreed upon), installation of plants/fruit trees, irrigation equipment and maintenance of the farm. Farm Manager will be responsible for hiring farm assistants as needed to complete these tasks and will account for those labor expenses in their proposal. The Farm Manager will have a minimum 3 years' experience in farm management, composting practices, have a food handler certification and demonstrate passion for horticultural education.

Farm Manager will provide and maintain their own truck for use on the Farm and will have experience with equipment operations in order to have access to the tractor and other Tribal equipment by signing the Pikiyav Community Lending Program agreement. The Farm Manager will attend meetings as needed with Food Sovereignty Program staff. Farm Manager and their assistants will demonstrate an ability to work harmoniously with Tribal communities and staff. Attend community and school events as requested. Any questions, concerns, needs or purchasing will be communicated with Tribal staff efficiently and in a timely manner.

Farm manager will maintain storage facilities, irrigation systems and any other Tribal equipment and supplies utilized. As well as create and utilize an inventory tracking system for farm supplies, equipment and materials. Farm Manager will follow the Karuk Tishániik Tribal Farm Standard Operating Procedures (attached). Invoicing will be required on a monthly basis and will include tracking of production and composting. This contract will be a one-year commitment from March 1st, 2026 through January 31st, 2027 at which time it will be reassessed.

Task One

Farm Manager will maintain the Tishániik Tribal Farm throughout the growing season and continue planting and harvesting based on seasonality and the growing list provided.
