

Welcome to Collective Health.

You've got great health benefits, & we're here to help you use them.

Whether you're trying to understand how your health plans work, review your claims, plan for upcoming care, find a provider, or submit a claim—Collective Health brings everything together into one connected experience. Our goal is to make understanding, navigating, and paying for care effortless, beginning with Open Enrollment.

Here's what to do next:

STEP 1

Review your plan options

Collective Health makes it easy to pick a plan, access your benefits, and achieve your health goals. Compare your plan options by visiting join.collectivehealth.com/RichProducts

Toggle between plans to easily compare details to find an option that fits for you. Get started here:

STEP 2

Choose a plan and enroll

Once you understand your options, choose and enroll in your health plan between Oct 27 – Nov 07 in Alight.

STEP 3

Register for your Collective Health account

In a few weeks you will receive an email from Collective Health prompting you to set up your account. This is where the magic happens! And it only takes a few minutes.

Once you've registered for your Collective Health account, you'll be able to see your plan details, monitor your plan activity, find in-network care—all in one place. If you are eligible for new cards, you will receive them a few weeks before your plan starts.
