ABOUT US

Street Communication is one of the leading LED screen companies, providing custom LED screens to satisfy any customer's needs. Founded in London, United Kingdom in 2012, Street Communication's headquarter is now based in Paris, France. We are a multinational company composed of manufacturers, designers, architects and engineers with more than ten years experience working with LED.

We are trained to work with LED on unconventional shapes and modern designs. Our products are new, innovative, as well as elegant and sophisticated. We have a lot of experience working with flexible and bendable LED panels to create columns, cylinders, as well as transparent LED solutions for shop, windows and facade buildings.
