Aims and activities of the organisation	Fléda Club is one of the most well-known music clubs in Brno and has been part of the city's nightlife for more than 20 years. Located close to the city center, it is a place where people come to enjoy concerts, club nights, and various cultural events. Over the years, the club has hosted many Czech and international artists, as well as DJs from different music scenes. The atmosphere at Fléda is lively and friendly, attracting mainly students and young people, but really anyone who enjoys good music and nightlife. The program is quite diverse – you can find live bands, electronic music nights, themed parties, or special events happening throughout the year. Besides the main club space, Fléda also includes a gallery that hosts exhibitions and creative projects, giving space to local artists. Another important part of the venue is Fraktal, a techno-focused club space known for underground electronic music events and DJ sets. Thanks to this combination of music, art, and nightlife, Fléda has become a long-standing and important cultural spot in Brno.
