11. I did not make my payments on time. What will happen?

All payments must be postmarked by the grace period deadline, which is the last day of the billing month. Since the payment was not made timely, this may result in your benefits being terminated. You will also be reimbursed back for your late payment by OSV.

Employees on Leave that owe benefits premium: If eligible, you will be able to re-enroll in the next Open Enrollment upon you returning to work. In addition, COBRA will not be offered if coverage is terminated for non-payment. You may reach out to the Healthcare Marketplace for other coverage.

Employees that do not make enough money on their paycheck to pay benefits premium: May re-enroll during the next Open Enrollment if you meet the eligibility requirements. In addition, COBRA will not be offered if coverage is terminated for non-payment. You may reach out to the Healthcare Marketplace for other coverage.

12. I am only able to afford some of the premium. What should I do?

The monthly premium must be paid in full to avoid termination of coverage. Only qualifying life events that are acceptable may allow changes outside of Open Enrollment. To learn more about what Qualifying Life Events are, please visit <https://totalrewards.crackerbarrel.com/>.

13. I believe my direct billing statement is incorrect.
