

The growth potential of women-owned businesses could transform the US economy.

Today, women's businesses contribute $3.3 trillion in annual revenues to our economy. As important as they already are, if these businesses operated and earned like their male-owned counterparts, their revenues could rise by a jaw-dropping $10.2 trillion. Realizing that potential is a national economic imperative.

State	Women-Owned % of Revenues	Potential Gains from Parity	State	Women-Owned % of Revenues	Potential Gains from Parity
Alabama	4.59%	$152.26 billion	Montana	5.92%	$21.9 billion
Alaska	5.26%	$17.87 billion	Nebraska	3.14%	$59.02 billion
Arizona	5.22%	$143.54 billion	Nevada	7.62%	$72.67 billion
Arkansas	5.05%	$62 billion	New Hampshire	5.87%	$32.69 billion
California	5.81%	$1.06 trillion	New Jersey	6.15%	$207.45 billion
Colorado	5.98%	$158.4 billion	New Mexico	5.41%	$35.01 billion
Connecticut	3.95%	$89.06 billion	New York	5.45%	$467.57 billion
DC	3.33%	$22.77 billion	North Carolina	5.00%	$253.6 billion
Delaware	4.01%	$24.49 billion	North Dakota	3.77%	$27 billion
Florida	6.34%	$539.32 billion	Ohio	3.63%	$312.83 billion
Georgia	5.00%	$372.2 billion	Oklahoma	4.69%	$84.23 billion
Hawaii	6.62%	$21.75 billion	Oregon	4.79%	$198.66 billion
Idaho	5.14%	$43.24 billion	Pennsylvania	3.98%	$286.74 billion
Illinois	5.20%	$321.74 billion	Rhode Island	4.82%	$22.9 billion
Indiana	3.28%	$310.94 billion	South Carolina	4.76%	$126.71 billion
Iowa	4.12%	$77.47 billion	South Dakota	4.80%	$24.58 billion
Kansas	3.74%	$66.1 billion	Tennessee	4.59%	$177.92 billion
Kentucky	4.28%	$82.23 billion	Texas	4.17%	$841.16 billion
Louisiana	3.82%	$143.49 billion	Utah	4.69%	$82.4 billion
Maine	5.87%	$29.35 billion	Vermont	6.30%	$12.62 billion
Maryland	5.86%	$157.37 billion	Virginia	4.97%	$187.79 billion
Massachusetts	4.11%	$209.07 billion	Washington	4.95%	$181.26 billion
Michigan	5.18%	$252.59 billion	West Virginia	3.44%	$29.47 billion
Minnesota	4.22%	$140.88 billion	Wisconsin	4.78%	$140.27 billion
Mississippi	4.24%	$84.02 billion	Wyoming	5.67%	$13.91 billion
Missouri	4.41%	$155.87 billion			