

Catherine Suleiman

Architectural Designer & Founder of
House Of The Young Romantics

b. 1999, London
www.houseoftheyoungromantics.com
catherine@houseoftheyoungromantics.com

Education

Architecture MA (Hons)
University of Edinburgh | 2017-2021

Awards

The John Kinross Scholarship
Royal Scottish Academy of Art and Architecture | 2021

Specialism

Architecture for the Artistic World
Salons · Coffee Houses · Clubs · Pleasure Gardens

House of The Young Romantics is a design practice devoted to the architecture of artistic life. Combining architectural practice with a rooted understanding of the architectures that sustained the artistic vanguard across history, it explores - through architectural drawing, the publication of The Perfect Clubman magazine, and the curation of intimate gatherings - the possibility of a renewed architecture for the artistic world.

Selected Experience

as Architectural Designer

Architectural Assistant
Foster & Partners
London | Jan 2022 · Ongoing

Architectural Assistant
Diener & Diener Architects
Basel, Switzerland | Mar - Sep 2020

Intern

Make Architects
London | June 2016

as Founder of

House Of The Young Romantics

Architectural Researcher
Architectures of the Artistic World - 52 Studies
Jan 2025 · Ongoing

Editor

The Perfect Clubman* - Magazine
2024 · Ongoing

Curator

Salons for Artists & Patrons
Benjamin Franklin House | Oct 2021
Leighton House Museum | Nov 2018