Where business
meets breathtaking

When you plan your event with Silvertip, we help you create the architecture for the perfect gathering, so you can let go of the stress and focus on the moment.

When it's all over, and you're driving home through winding mountain roads, you'll feel satisfied and know that everyone will have lasting memories of your event.

Far from ordinary, close to home

Perched on the sun-soaked slopes of Mt. Lady Macdonald, Silvertip Resort is just over an hour from Calgary and the Calgary International Airport on the scenic Trans-Canada highway. Silvertip is close enough to make transportation easy — but far enough to leave the ordinary in your rearview. Let the city slide away and embrace nature's sublime scenery.

Amenities in the mountains

The mountains are synonymous with escape, which used to mean cut off from comfort. But while the mountains haven't changed — they still climb higher than you thought possible — everything in them has. Today, perched on the shoulders of giants, you can find local delicacies, world-class golf courses, and grand spaces to gather in luxurious comfort.

Create your vision

You have a vision — an unforgettable gathering that's far from ordinary. You're planning an event that will wow your clients, your boss, your friends and colleagues. This takes research, imagination and a lot of planning.
