Alberta Vocational Centre College

Things have changed since 1965. In 1965 the Sheraton Hotel was the tallest building in Calgary, a cellular phone was unheard of, and a Macintosh was just an apple.

In 1965, the newly-opened Alberta Vocational Centre in Calgary admitted 535 adult students. Since then, AVC has offered dozens of courses — in computers, training for business and industry, English as a second language, high school equivalency, to name just a few — to thousands of adult Albertans.

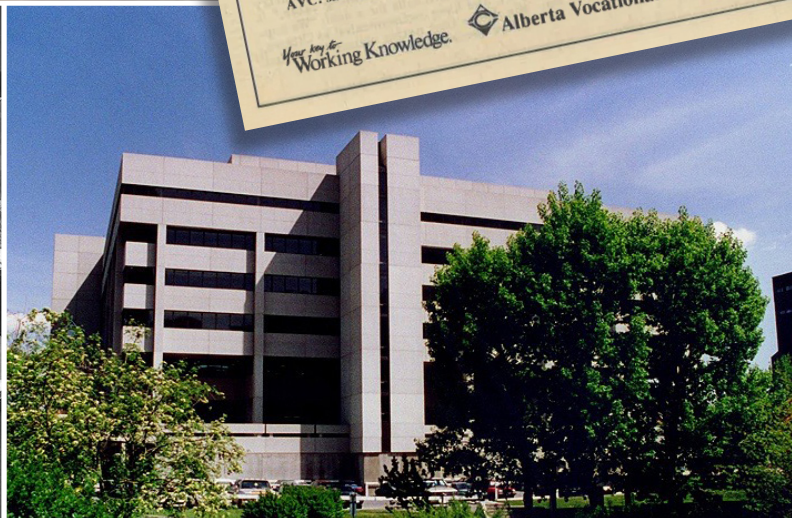

Today's AVC has a staff of 400 and serves 25,000 students. It's unique. In fact, nowhere else in Canada are there comparable institutions with the trained staff and support services specifically oriented toward assisting adults.

AVC: same initials, same commitment, new name.

Your key to Working Knowledge.

ADVANCING

Celebrating 60 years of student success

2025 marks Bow Valley College's 60th anniversary. Since opening our doors as the Alberta Vocational Centre – Calgary in 1965, we have been providing job-focused training and continue to champion career-focused programs.

From humble beginnings offering preparatory programs, business education, and academic upgrading, our focus has been on transformative education. We launch careers in entertainment arts, health and wellness, business, and technology to new heights. We remove barriers to education to make all learning count.

Our downtown campus — a hub of innovation, learning, and belonging — has doubled in size since opening in 1972. On April 1, 1998, Alberta Vocational College became the institution we know today: Bow Valley College.

We have grown from being a vocational training centre to a career-focused college, helping students advance into meaningful careers. We are poised to build on our rich history and continue our mission of fostering innovation, accessibility, and lifelong learning.

2025 is about celebrating 60 years of student success, and many more years of Bow Valley College.

Honorary Diploma Recipient

Dr. Clarence Wolfleg

Elder, Siksika Nation

Dr. Clarence Wolfleg Sr. is from the Siksika Nation and is one of the Elders who support students and employees here at Bow Valley College. His traditional Blackfoot name is Miiksika'am and this translates to Red Crane, which is also his fourth great-grandfathers' name.

Dr. Wolfleg is a residential school survivor and has served 10 terms as councilor with the Siksika Nation, with portfolios in land claims, policing, and child welfare. He is a member of the Horn Society and a seven-year veteran of peacekeeping in the mid-1960s.

Upon his return from peacekeeping, he became a federal police officer and served 14 years as a special constable with the RCMP here in Alberta. He was also chief of police for the Siksika Nation and has worked for corrections Canada for many years in the court programs.

Dr. Wolfleg received his honorary Bachelor of Arts Degree in Sociology from Mount Royal University in 2016, and received an honorary doctorate from Mount Royal University in 2021. In 2022 he was a recipient of the Queen Elizabeth Diamond Jubilee Medal. He was also awarded the King Charles III Coronation Medal this year.

Distinguished Speaker

Deborah Yedlin
President and CEO,
Calgary Chamber of Commerce

Deborah Yedlin currently serves as President and CEO of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce. She took on the role of stewarding the 133-year-old organization in July 2021, bringing with her experience in capital markets gained while working on Wall Street and Bay Street, and two decades of covering Canadian Business as a columnist for various media outlets.

Deborah has a unique perspective on the role of post-secondary education in society, having just completed a four year term as Chancellor of the University of Calgary.

Since moving to Calgary in 1992, Deborah has been very active in the Calgary community, serving on the boards of a number of arts and community organizations and is currently one of three co-chairs for the $250 million Calgary Cancer Centre fundraising campaign.

Governor General's Academic Medal Recipient

Cesar Lawrence Nouell Glenn Perez Software Development Diploma, School of Technology

Cesar Lawrence Nouell Glenn Perez was an electronics engineer and software developer in the Philippines before coming to Canada and Bow Valley College. He gained experience in factory automation, machine vision, and test development for semiconductors.

Glenn and his girlfriend always dreamed of going abroad together. She moved to Calgary to pursue the Child and Youth Care Diploma at Bow Valley College—and a year later, based on her positive experiences, Glenn also decided to attend Bow Valley College, choosing the Software Development Diploma.

Glenn praises Bow Valley College's student supports, knowledgeable instructors, and their passion for bringing out the best in their students. His girlfriend also graduated from Bow Valley College last year, and they are now happily married, expecting their first child.

He is excited to put his software skills and knowledge into practice and become more proficient in programming.

Glenn's time at Bow Valley College has been a personal journey of love, education, adventure, and many discoveries.

"I will be forever grateful for and cherish my experiences at Bow Valley College."

Valedictorians

Odylon Garo

Software Development – Apprenticeship Style Diploma,
School of Technology

Odylon “Ody” Garo is a dedicated and family-oriented professional who values respect, teamwork, and resilience – qualities that have shaped both his personal and professional success. After a 15-year career, Ody made the bold decision to return to school in his mid-30s to pursue his passion for technology. Recognized for his skills and expertise, he was accepted into Bow Valley College’s Software Development Apprenticeship Style Diploma.

Through the program, Ody gained real-world experience while developing essential skills such as leadership, effective communication, resourcefulness, and collaboration.

His journey underscores the power of inclusion and creativity in solving challenges and driving innovation. Upon successfully completing the program, Ody seamlessly transitioned into the workforce, applying his knowledge and skills in a professional setting. The experience reinforced his commitment to continuous growth, and he remains eager to contribute these values to the community.

Nikolas Florez

Advanced Visual Effects Diploma,
Centre for Entertainment Arts

Originally from Colombia, Nikolas Florez earned a degree in film production, followed by a master's degree in screenwriting.

He built a successful career as a director and screenwriter, receiving both national and international recognition for his work developing original content and bringing compelling stories to life. His journey has not only shaped his artistic voice but has given him an understanding of the storytelling craft and the evolving landscape of media production.

Nikolas chose Bow Valley College and the Centre for Entertainment Arts (CEA) because he wanted to take his career to the next level, specializing in virtual production. At the time, the CEA was one of the few places in the world offering hands-on training in this cutting-edge technology.

The opportunity to learn from industry professionals and work with state-of-the-art equipment gave him the foundation to turn his vision into reality and push the boundaries of what's possible in storytelling.

Nikolas is now one of the few virtual production professionals in Alberta. His goal is to become one of the foremost directors in virtual production, starting with his upcoming feature Guardians of the Legends, which began as his final project in the Advanced Visual Effects Diploma.

"Achievements in life are like the movies — no matter how great the premiere, as soon as the credits roll, it's time to start creating the next masterpiece."

Luisa Madriaga Rebualos

Medical Office Assistant Certificate, 2023

Luisa Madriaga Rebualos once stood at a crossroads. She had earned a biology degree in the Philippines and worked in a call centre—but after the pandemic, something shifted. “I wanted to reconnect with my passion for healthcare,” she says. That calling led her to Bow Valley College’s Medical Office Assistant Certificate—a blend of science and service that felt just right.

During her second semester, she volunteered at the campus flu clinic. Her enthusiasm caught the eye of the clinic manager, and just like that, Luisa stepped into her first role in Canadian healthcare.

“The hands-on learning and support from my instructors gave me the confidence I needed to enter the field,” she says.

Now working at Richmond Square Medical Centre, she reflects on her journey. “Say yes to the small things. Volunteering opened doors I never expected,” she shares. Today, Luisa is a proud Bow Valley College alum, carrying forward purpose, connection, and care.
