All visible constellations and shining stars seem within arm's reach in God's Gift (Boží Dar). You can easily purchase one in the mountain residential complex Slunečná – for example, Vega.

Known as the brightest star in the Lyra constellation, apart from the Sun, it is considered the most studied of stars. The mountain apartment of the same name will undoubtedly prove to be an excellent study object.

- Currently, the layout is being adjusted by the Ivanka Kowalski studio for maximum utilization of the living space.
- During Q1/2024, it is still possible to consider client modifications according to their requirements for the layout of the apartment unit.

This drawing was created for marketing purposes. The apartment area is in accordance with the project documentation. The developer reserves the right to make changes. Interior furnishings are not included. The scope of delivery is specified in the standard flat description.
