CoCreation Days at Lake Constance

Whether it's a workshop, hackathon or product event – at our CoCreation Days on Lake Constance, your team can escape the daily grind and get stuck into developing practical use cases or initial concrete solutions for your digital process optimisation.

Overview

- ▶ Right at Lake Constance
- ▶ With real workshop output
- ▶ Including meals and leisure programme
- ▶ Individually or as a project team
- ▶ One or two days
- ▶ With individual topic and tangible prototype

What happens at a CoCreation Day?

In a relaxed atmosphere, we work together on a specific challenge from your everyday life. We analyse processes, identify opportunities – and develop initial solutions, which we translate directly into a digital prototype.

What is the outcome of the CoCreation Days?

- Validated idea with direct practical relevance
- Visible impact in everyday work
- Basis for decision-making on next project steps
- Stable foundation for targeted further development

Who is our CoCreation Day for?

For project teams, innovation drivers, specialist areas or entire departments who:

- Want to make new ideas tangible
- Want to improve digital processes
- Are looking for a special team event with output
