

Name

Alexander Jones

Year of Call

2015

Areas of Law

Employment Law, Personal Injury, Police Law, Civil Law

Overview

Alexander became a member of Chambers in 2017 after successful completion of pupillage under the supervision of Mark Chester. He now has a busy common law practice with particular emphasis on employment law, high-value personal injury, and civil actions against the police, acting exclusively on behalf of police authorities.

Alexander is known for his pragmatic, problem-solving approach and has been praised for his adaptability to client needs. He is approachable and maintains strong working relationships with his instructing solicitors, often providing informal advice throughout the course of a case.

Education

- Junior Counsel to the Crown – Regional C Panel – March 2020
- BPP Manchester, 'Outstanding' Grade (Bar Practitioners Training Course) ranked in the top 5 of cohort
- Liverpool John Moores University, 1st Class Honours (LL.B Hons Law) ranked in the top 5 of cohort
- Inner Temple Prize for Outstanding BPTC Performance
- Major Exhibition Award, Honourable Society of the Inner Temple, 2014
- Winner, Essex Court Chambers English Speaking Union (ESU) Mooting Competition 2016

Further Information

Alexander accepts instructions on a Conditional Fee Agreement basis where the merits of the case allow. He usually returns paperwork within 14 days but is able to accommodate urgent deadlines where required.

He continues to expand his expertise across employment law, personal injury, and police law, balancing both court advocacy and paperwork practices.