

Name

Cecilia Pritchard

Year of Call

1998

Areas of Law

Civil Law and Criminal Law

Overview

Cecilia was called to the Bar at Middle Temple in 1998. She is an experienced barrister with a background in personal injury law, having worked as a fee earner in two solicitors' firms before commencing pupillage in 2003. Cecilia is known for her attention to detail, clear client communication, and fearless advocacy in court.

Memberships

- Personal Injury Bar Association
- Middle Temple
- Northern Circuit

Further Information

Before pupillage, Cecilia gained valuable experience in personal injury law, handling both defendant and claimant cases, including road traffic, public liability, and employers' liability claims. She prides herself on preparing cases thoroughly and building strong client relationships in short timeframes, ensuring clients have confidence in her advice, even when it is not favourable to their case. In trial, she represents her clients with determination and commitment, always striving for the best possible outcome.