Overview

Caitlin joined Chambers as a tenant in October 2026 following the successful completion of her pupillage under the supervision of Jac Armstrong.

Caitlin accepts instructions across the full spectrum of Business and Property work and has a growing chancery and commercial practice. She is regularly instructed in both contentious and non-contentious chancery matters, contractual disputes, and insolvency proceedings.

Her property practice encompasses both residential and commercial landlord and tenant disputes, as well as nuisance, boundary, easement, and TOLATA matters.

Caitlin acts in probate disputes including testamentary capacity and claims brought pursuant to the Inheritance Act 1975.

Caitlin also accepts instructions on behalf of the police and local authorities in relation to applications under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
