Built-in drug discount pricing

MedsYourWay discount pricing is built right into the Amazon Pharmacy shopping experience.

- MedsYourWay compares prices from participating drug discount cards with your pharmacy benefit cost. At check-out, you'll see the lowest cost available for your medicine.
- The MedsYourWay drug discount card pricing is not insurance. But using it to pay for medicines covered⁴ by your plan at Amazon Pharmacy will count toward your yearly plan deductible and/or out-of-pocket maximum.
