- Description: This rare and highly collectible bottle of Horse Soldier Bourbon Commander's Select VI is signed by the full ODA 595 team, the legendary U.S. Army Special Forces unit immortalized as the "Horse Soldiers" of Operation Enduring Freedom. They were the first U.S. ground element to enter Afghanistan after 9/11. Commander's Select releases are produced in extremely limited quantities and represent the highest tier of Horse Soldier Bourbon offerings. Sourced from Kentucky, Commander's Select VI was laid down 12 years ago in a single Bardstown rickhouse.

The addition of signatures from the full ODA 595 team significantly elevates this bottle's historical and collectible value, making it a standout piece for bourbon collectors, military history enthusiasts, and supporters of veteran-founded brands. A compelling combination of premium bourbon craftsmanship, American history, and authentic provenance, this bottle is seldom seen in the secondary market and is ideal for display or long-term collection.
