A photograph of an office interior. In the foreground, a silver A-frame step ladder stands on a blue patterned carpet. A large, dark, irregularly shaped object, possibly a piece of debris or a large bag, lies on the carpet near the base of the ladder. In the background, there are two desks with black chairs, a white wall, and a wooden door. A red speech bubble is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing text. The ceiling is white with recessed lighting and a projector mounted on it.
