EDUCATION CAREER AND LIFE IMPACT

- Olena worked as an accountant for 12 years.
- After returning to the reoccupied Kyiv region, she began to master UX design.
- Olena has now completed her first contract and is working on the project on the recommendation of.

- Alyona left Sumy at the beginning of the full-scale invasion.
- She received a grant to study for the Motion Design course.
- A month and a half after finishing the course, Alyona had a meeting with a Ukrainian advertising agency on Lezo.
- This prompted the girl to return to Ukraine.

- After her husband was wounded at the front, she quit her job to support him during his rehabilitation.
- During this period, Yevheniia decided to change her profession and started studying at the SMM course.
- Thanks to her new profession, Yevheniia was able to work remotely, which gave her the opportunity to combine work with caring for her husband.
- The training allowed Yevheniia to use social media to support important initiatives, including those aimed at helping veterans

- Anna, 21, spent six months under Russian occupation before evacuating to Zaporizhia.
- Before the war, she had planned a career in accounting, but after moving, she decided to change her profession.
- Having experience in SMM and helping her mother with Instagram, Anna became interested in graphic design.
- Thanks to her new skills, Anna started an internship at a marketing company, which gave her the opportunity to start a new career and rebuild her life after her experience.
